The Black History Scholarship Committee

Black History Committee

Dear Seniors,

The Black History committee will be awarding the Rosa Parks Scholarship to some deserving senior of African American descent to pursue higher learning at a College or University of their choice, during Black History month (February 2016).

In order to be considered for this scholarship, you must be a high school senior and submit an essay about a famous African American who's had a profound effect on the civil rights of African Americans. The essay must be typed and must be between 700 and 1,000 words. Also, your essay needs to describe what effects the person had on African American culture and how this person has influenced your life. Essays will be judged on grammar, spelling, punctuation and knowledge of the person you have selected. Your essay should be focused, purposeful, and reflect original insight and ideas.

Essay and application for the scholarship must be submitted to a member of the Black History Committee no later than January 8, 2016.

Sincerely,

Lawrence Johnson, President
