FOREWORD

It is the school district's responsibility along with the parents and guardians of a child to attend to the educational aspects of a child's life. Forming a solid partnership with the district, the child and the child's family is critical to ensure the academic, social, ethical, and critical problem solving success of our children as reflected in our district mission.

Elkins School District's parents and guardians comprise a diverse group. They are all a most integral component of the district's drive to maintain and improve the academic, social, ethical, and critical problem solving skills for all children in our district.

Research reports and Elkins School District agrees that the more the parents and guardians of our children are knowledgeable and engaged in this process the greater the outcomes. The district plan will be disseminated by posting on the school web site in whole and postings are disseminated throughout the community on community post boards the announcement of parental involvement in our district as well as directions to access the building and district plans. The schools' plans are disseminated during the parent meetings.

The primary parental involvement facilitator and principal and the elementary parental involvement facilitator and principal along with the district federal programs director conduct an annual meeting in the spring to update plans for next year's Title I, Part A program.

The District Federal Programs Coordinator along with the building administrators and parent facilitators are responsible for ensuring and monitoring each school in the areas of parental involvement. The primary parental involvement facilitator along with the District Federal Programs Coordinator informs and coordinates parental involvement activities with our HIPPY program and local head start {Lisa Carper and Jane Vaught-Simmons (479)643-2172}

Parental involvement facilitators are identified at each school to act as contact persons who are responsible for conducting an annual review of the effectiveness of the parental involvement plans. (Primary: Lisa Carper, Elementary: Cindy Hubbs, Middle School: Amy Camp, High School: Amanda Coleman). The District Federal Programs Coordinator (Jane D. Vaught-Simmons (479)643-2172) is responsible for conducting an annual review of the effectiveness of the district parental involvement plan. As well, the District Federal Programs Coordinator develops a district parental involvement committee to create a parental involvement plan and implement parental involvement activities. The District Federal Programs Coordinator along with the Primary and Elementary Parental Facilitator (Cindy Hubbs and Lisa Carper) disseminates information to community promoting parental involvement in the Title I, Part A schools in a manner in which parents with disabilities may access these activities and parents of limited English proficiency have the same access as other parents including information in a language they can understand.

5. The district shall recognize that communication between the home and the district should be regular, two-way and meaningful.
 - The district shall incorporate the Elkins School District Parental Involvement Plan into the district's and schools' annual comprehensive school improvement plan (ACSIP) with parent suggestions.

The District Federal Programs Coordinator is instrumental in reviewing and developing the district parental involvement policy. The District Federal Programs Coordinator with the school facilitators and guidance from State Federal Programs develops the school-parent compact. Two informational parent meetings are conducted each school year in our Title I schools to provide parents with information to improve their child's academic achievement and how to access their child's achievement status at flexible meeting times to accommodate parents. Letters are sent out to inform our parents of their child's attendance. Our district utilizes In Touch as well as our web site to communicate our parent meetings.
