OVERVIEW
Monroe County Community School Corporation (hereafter referred to as MCCSC) is soliciting proposals at this time for electronic textbooks and digital materials for courses listed in the Curriculum Subject Area section of this request. Resources will be adopted for use beginning in the 2018-2019 school year through 2023-2024 school year. Interested offerers are encouraged to submit a proposal specific to the guidelines listed in this request. MCCSC has an expressed commitment to quality, accuracy & accessibility.
in the selection of digital materials, including alignment to 21st century college and career ready standards. All submitted proposals must also include a comprehensive strategy for providing professional development for district teachers and staff.

Please have delivered to the above address TWO (2) COPIES of each student text, teacher editions, and ONE (1) component of each associated material, only in the listed subject area, by the submission deadline. Please provide a sample log-in for accessing and previewing online digital content for teachers and students. Also include a Canvas Integration Guide and a Student Roster Integration Guide.

Additional copies and accompanying materials may be requested from selected publishers after the initial screening process is completed.

Central to the needs of the District is a product that:

- Digital Resources:
  - May include a fully web-based version of the complete text, including interactive, and multimedia features appropriate for student use, and including home use.
  - May include supplemental digital materials and enhancements such as virtual manipulatives, interactive games, and video appropriate for collaborative and individual learning environments.
  - May include online professional development components and additional instructional planning resources for teachers.
  - All electronic textbooks, digital components, features, demonstrations, virtual labs, and content must be fully accessible and operational on Apple iOS, MacOS, Windows 7, and Windows 10 platforms. Flash-only video resources must also be available in HTML5 or comparable language for iOS delivery. All digital content must be exportable as PDF or locally stored library on a student device, even if temporarily, for students needing to access material while offline.
  - All digital resource integration tools must be available and provided to the district by July 1, 2018.

- Student Information System Synchronization:
  - All digital and non-digital resources requiring rostering or the loading of class lists, teacher lists, and/or course schedules must be compatible with data housed in Skyward, MCCSC’s Student Information System (SIS). Preference will be given to vendors with direct Skyward APIs or the ability to sync through a vendor-provided roster import tool. Manual-only rostering options will not be considered as viable and sustainable curriculum resources. APIs to our SIS or the use of vendor-provided import tools must be included as part of the base price for adoption and not offered as additional, for-purchase add on features.

- Differentiated Instruction
  - Must include intervention and enrichment opportunities as well as materials to support differentiation. Clear outline of various learning formats and opportunities for hands-on strategies and engaging activities. Students are provided opportunities to respond through various modalities: visual, auditory, and kinesthetic. Instructional materials and supplemental resources should adhere to the principles of universal design for learning (UDL).

- Rigorous:
○ Content incorporates appropriate rigor as outlined by the Indiana Academic Standards and Essential Learnings. Please refer to the Indiana Department of Education’s website for the standards: https://www.doe.in.gov/standards.

- Culturally Responsive & Sustaining:
  ○ Equity centered curricula aligned to state standards.
  ○ Inclusive in nature (curricular examples, scenarios): sensitive to all cultures, ethnic groups & SES; avoiding biases. Material should represent histories and narratives from multiple perspectives, avoiding stereotypes and generalizations.
  ○ Learning strategies and teaching methods must also be culturally inclusive. Students should be required to demonstrate knowledge and understanding of histories and representations from a wide breadth of diverse backgrounds, and are asked to demonstrate a critique of dominant narratives that may serve to oppress people.
