PAWHUSKA FILM SCHOOL CAMP

Calling the passionate, the driven, the exceptional who desire to learn from the best in the Film industry. Don't miss this opportunity to meet these film icons and learn from the best in the business!

Preserving Arts in the Osage and OK Creative Communities, Pawhuska is privileged to extend this exclusive offer for students ages 14 - 19 to attend the Pawhuska Film School Camp from July 23 -27, 2018.

Twelve to fifteen privileged students will be selected to take part in this amazing opportunity coming to Pawhuska. Selected students will receive hands-on experience using state-of-the-art equipment from award-winning legends in the film industry. Instructors include John Sjogren, David Von Roehm, Kerry Wallum, Elle Jewell, Kyle Warren, and special guest, Joe Estevez.

Students will learn different aspects of Film from acting, storyboard, and scriptwriting, to filming, animation, editing, and presentation. There will be five days of intensive, one-on-one mentorship, training and project completion. On the final afternoon, attendees will present their work at the historic Constantine Theatre. This opportunity is sponsored by Preserving Arts in the Osage, OK Creative Communities, Pawhuska, Enel Green Power and is free of charge.
