- 1) Fall activities are underway. The football team won the Homecoming game 29-0. We have hosted a 9th VB tournament, Cross Country meet, and will host our varsity volleyball tournament on October 1st. All of our teams are off to nice starts.
- 2) This season we have 17 athletes out for Cross Country, 40 boys out for football, and 24 girls out for volleyball. MS football has 31 players, MS volleyball has 30 players, and MS cross country has 9 runners participating. The MS volleyball league tournament is in Burlington on October 1st. League Cross Country is also in Burlington on Thursday, October 13th.
- 3) KSHSAA count day was September 20th. Wellsville High School reported 257 students for classifications. Other league totals were: Anderson Co 305, Burlington 274, Iola 355, Osawatomie 337, Prairie View 291, and SFT 303.
- 4) Student Council will attend a Regional workshop in Garnett on Thursday, September 22nd.
- 5) The cast has been announced for our school play on November 9th and 10th. Ms. Stendebach has done a great job preparing for her first play, You Can't Take it With You, written by Hart and Kaufman.
- 6) Wellsville will host the MS League Choir concert on Monday, October 17th @ 6:30 PM.
- 7) Regional and Sub-state pairings should be released soon by the KSHSAA.
