Mullin ISD Commitment

Our fully accredited and holistic program addresses each child individually. Our goal is to build confidence and love of learning, giving students a solid foundation for a healthy and happy life.

Our longtime teachers and staff are dedicated to helping each child discover their unique potential – academically, socially, and interpersonally. We invite you to learn more about us and to visit our district soon.

Mullin ISD Mission Statement

The mission of the Mullin Independent School District is to provide customer service at the highest level. As a culturally diverse community, we will provide equitable opportunities for scholarship, leadership, and individual citizenship for our students. With the cooperation of faculty, staff, parents, and community, we will encourage and assist students in acquiring the knowledge, skills, and attitudes necessary for them to become productive members of a culturally diverse society.

Mullin ISD Vision Statement

Students will take ownership of their personal learning in an engaging interactive environment that utilizes up-to-date technology and is guided by the curriculum and facilitated by the instructor to develop and produce products that reflect learning and attainment of the TEKS. These student-driven classrooms will prepare our students individually and collaboratively to succeed in whatever path desired, be it traditional college, vocational school, or immediate workforce placement.
