

First Grade Music Week Of

	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
Objective:	Explore upward and downward melodic direction.	Move to match song lyrics.	Sol-mi-sol pattern.	Identify sound source.	Identify repeated tones.
Essential Question:	Is an ascending scale upward or downward?	What movements are mentioned in the song?	How do we move our hands on "rhis old man"?	Did you hear any sounds other than the voices of the singers?	What part of the song do the voices stay on the same pitch?
Vocabulary:	downward, upward	None	None	None	repeated tones
Misconceptions:	None	None	None	None	None
Lesson Activities (Guided/Ind. Practice/Lesson closure/Assessment/Exit Ticket)	One Potato, Two Potato	Head And Shoulders, Baby	This Old Man	Hunting	Four White Horses
TEKS:	2B	3A, 3C	2B	3A, 3C	2B
Key Questions:	Is a descending scale upward or downward?	How do you do the movements?	How do we move our hands for sol-mi-sol?	What do you think those sounds were?	Where is this song from?