

Name _____

Study Guide for "Baby Bears"

Vocabulary Practice:

1. "To stay alive, they sleep through most of the winter." What does the word alive mean?

- (A) awake (B) alert
 (C) living (D) sleeping

2. Which word means "to make neat and tidy"?

- (A) feed (B) work
 (C) groom (D) guard

3. Which word means "grown-up"?

- (A) adult (B) daughter
 (C) female (D) male

4. "Bears are covered with fur." What does the word covered mean?

- (A) stretched (B) spread over
 (C) put above (D) placed near

5. Which of the following animals has fur?

Ⓐ bird

Ⓑ fish

Ⓒ dog

Ⓓ snake

6. Which word means "milk-giving animal"?

Ⓐ reptile

Ⓑ bird

Ⓒ fish

Ⓓ mammal

7. A giant tree is _____.

Ⓐ very low

Ⓑ very leafy

Ⓒ very light

Ⓓ very large

8. Which word means "an animal's children"?

Ⓐ neighbors

Ⓑ parents

Ⓒ offspring

Ⓓ relatives

Comprehension Practice:

9. What is the topic of the section "Kinds of Bears"?

Ⓐ Bears are really kind, gentle animals.

Ⓑ There are several types of bears.

Ⓒ Different kinds of bears eat different foods.

Ⓓ Different kinds of bears live in different habitats.

10. How long do bear cubs stay with their moms?

- Ⓐ 2-3 days
- Ⓑ 2-3 years
- Ⓒ 2-3 weeks
- Ⓓ 2-3 months

11. How are bears and people ALIKE?

- Ⓐ Both walk on four legs.
- Ⓑ Both have fur.
- Ⓒ Both sleep through the winter.
- Ⓓ Both are mammals.

12. How are panda bears DIFFERENT from other kinds of bears?

- Ⓐ They eat very little.
- Ⓑ They only eat meat.
- Ⓒ They eat both plants and animals.
- Ⓓ They eat only plants.

13. How do bears who sleep through most of the winter survive?

- Ⓐ They store food in their den to eat when they get hungry.
- Ⓑ They live off the fat stored in their bodies.
- Ⓒ They wake often to find food.
- Ⓓ They find food when they need it.