Happy Holidays

From the desk of Nathan Evans, Principal

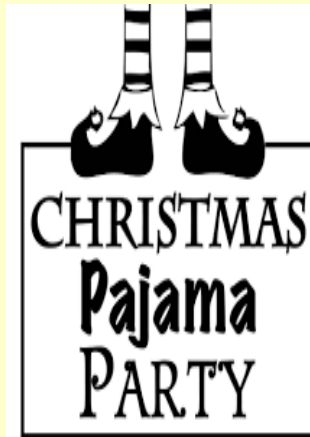

As we quickly approach 2020, it is natural that we reflect on all that has happened in 2019. For Nashville Primary, this year has been a time of change and new beginnings. In May, we said goodbye to some amazing educators who established the strong foundations on which we have continued to build. We are deeply appreciative for the sweat and tears each put into helping develop well-rounded, educated students. Their impact in the lives of many students will be felt for years to come.

In August, we welcomed new faces into our building that we now can't imagine not being a part of our NPS family. Mrs. Venable, Mrs. Mote, Mrs. Dunham, Mrs. Miller, and Mrs. Nichols have each brought an energy and passion to Nashville Primary that we love!

I am full of optimism as we head into 2020 and continue on the path of excellence. Currently, we are in the midst of taking our second round of Interim tests, and we are seeing huge gains in all grade levels! Our objective is that all students love being at school and develop a lifelong love for learning. We are well on our way to achieving this goal thanks to our amazing staff and the continued support by parents and the community.

It is my prayer that each of you have a holiday season full of happiness and joy, and that it continues throughout the new year.

*From our entire faculty and staff,
Mrs. Nichols and myself, have a Merry
Christmas and a blessed New Year!*

Wednesday, Dec 18 NPS will have a pre-Christmas Pajama Party!

Please remember:

- No slippers- wear your regular shoes
- choose jammies that are appropriate for the weather
- choose jammies that cover your body like your regular school clothes would
