

Searcy County School District Vision Statement

Searcy County School District's vision for students is that they graduate with the capabilities to become independent, productive citizens who serve their community, state and nation as they follow their dreams.