What a Wonderful Way to Start a Wednesday

(Anybody else enjoy alliteration?)

On Wednesday, November 28, the Comanche Dancers (many of whom are Indiahoma students) danced at our morning assembly in celebration of National American Indian Heritage Month. Leonard Chibitty directed the presentation and played drum for the dancers. Marlene Ulloa was the narrator and participated in singing hymns in Comanche. The event ended with an audience participation dance. It was uplifting and a lot of fun.

Angel Tree

The Angel Tree will be sans tree this year. If you would like to donate to help children in our community have a Merry Christmas, contact Carrie Thomason (246-3333) or Phyllis Mahaffey (246-3448).

Art & Music with Allen Johnson

For ten days in November, 7-12 grade Indiahoma students had more art and music time with Allen Johnson. Classes were held in the Methodist Church Fellowship Hall on November 5-7, 12-16 and 19-20. There was a performance in the school auditorium on Wednesday, November 14.

Students learned how to play different kinds of drums, including bass drums and snare drums. They also played piano, danced and learned to write lyrics. As one student put it, "I learned from Mr. Johnson that when you are playing music, it all comes from the heart. You have to put your best effort into it and play it with all your heart and soul, not just with your head and your hands."
