Quotes from the Morning Assembly

An anonymous author said: If you cannot find meaning in your life, it is your RESPONSIBILITY to create it.

Steve Maraboli says: The victim mindset dilutes the human potential. By not accepting personal responsibility for our circumstances, we greatly reduce our power to change them.

Brian Tracy says: "The happiest people in the world are those who feel absolutely terrific about themselves, and this is a natural outgrowth of accepting total responsibility for every part of their life."

Theodore Roosevelt wisely said, "If you could kick the person in the pants responsible for most of your trouble, you wouldn't sit for a month."

Anne Frank had valuable insight. She said, "Parents can only give good advice and put their children on the right path, but the final forming of a person's character lies in their own hands."

You Know You're in FFA When . . .

- your mom calls your advisor to find out where you are.
- the papers in your binder smell like the AG dept.
- people can tell where you've driven from the trail of straw and alfalfa.
