AREA NEWS

Saturday, May 3rd at 8:00 pm
Lawton Community Theater John Denney Playhouse, 1316 NW Bell
Rudy Ramos one-man show "Geronimo, Life on the Reservation"
Tickets: $16-20, call 355-1600 for reservations

Rudy Ramos is a former Lawtonian who went on to have an amazing acting career. He's been on TV shows such as Jag, Hawaii 5-0, NYPD Blue, Grizzly Adams, Knight Rider, Murder She Wrote, Hunter, Rockford Files and High Chaparal, just to mention a few. He's been in movies with Clint Eastwood, Ryan O'Neal, Jan-Michael Vincent, Kevin Bacon, and Robert Duvall.

Now he has returned to Lawton to perform a play by Janelle Meraz Hooper, a story of Geronimo's life as a POW on the Ft. Sill Indian Reservation. It focuses on the resiliency, humor, and genius of the great Apache warrior.

Author Ron Cooper will be sharing about his book, "It's My Trail, Too: A Comanche Indian's Journey on the Cherokee Trail of Tears".

In January of 2011, Ron Cooper, a member of the Comanche Nation of Oklahoma, began walking the Northern Route of the Cherokee Trail of Tears National Historic Trail as a personal adventure of self-reflection. Much to his surprise, he quickly became an ambassador for education, a catalyst for further conservancy of the Trail, and a symbol of tribal unity and pride.

During his journey, Cooper experienced all of the pitfalls expected when hiking a long distance, while also enduring the worst winter in recent memory. Constantly plagued by setbacks and doubt, his determination to finish the quest is an inspiration to anyone who has ever desired to take on unknown challenges and seemingly-impossible goals.

"Part memoir, part trail guide – with history and philosophy throughout. Cooper's is a fresh new voice in the genre."
