Backpacks of Blessings A Big Hit

The annual Backpacks of Blessings block party was held at the school Tuesday, August 4th. Activities enjoyed by the community were a bounce house, inflatable slide, face painting, dunk tank, snow cones, a free hot dog dinner as well as a few other attractions. Best of all, students were treated to a free backpack full of school supplies needed for the upcoming school year.

Students and parents enjoyed the company of old friends not seen for weeks as well the thrill of meeting new students and teachers.

We have three new teachers this year. Positions with new staff are agriculture, fourth grade and pre-kindergarten. Look for write-ups on our new staff in upcoming newsletter issues.

Those students who were unable to attend the Backpack of Blessing block party can contact the school at 246-3333 for information about receiving a backpack of supplies free of charge.

The party was sponsored by the Indianoma churches. The Methodist, Baptist, Post Oak Mennonite Brethren and Church of Christ worked together to purchase, organize and pack supplies using supply lists provided by the school. The churches and volunteers also provided funds and labor for the food and events. A great time was had by all and we hope to see you back next year.

Have a great school year!

Sixth grader Trace Thomason rears back to throw at the dunk tank.

Picture Day Approaching

It won't be long before picture day is upon us. School pictures are scheduled for September 4th. Yearbook individual pictures will be taken as well as fall sports.

Mark your calendars and look your best.

Please don't forget to bring your sports uniforms for team pictures.

Club and organization pictures will also be taken that day.
