The annual Indian- dahoma School ice cream social will be held on Tuesday, August 30th. The social will start with ice cream, registration for door prizes, and a social time at 6:30 p.m. in the school auditorium. The yearbook staff will have a representative on hand to give out any books ordered last year that have not already been delivered. They will also be selling copies of the 2015-16 yearbooks.

If you would like to pre-order a 2017 book, they can take care of that as well.

cream socialites will then have time to visit classrooms with their students. Teachers will be in their rooms to meet and greet visitors.

The evening will end with a final gathering in the auditorium for door prize drawings. We always have lots of great prize donations from our community members and businesses. You don't want to miss this event.

We hope to see you all at our annual open house. It is always a highlight of our year.

The social portion of the ice cream social will end with announcements from the administration. Ice
