District Champions!!!

The Lady Warriors dominated the district tournament to take home the championship title. The team earned the privilege to sit back and relax during the first round of district play. They met Mt. View-Gotebo in the finals Saturday night. The team rolled over the lady tigers 61-24.

The Lady Warriors' next step towards the “Big House” is the regional tournament. They will play Duke in Tipton Thursday, 6:30 p.m. Please come out and support the team.

Indian Taco Dinner to Benefit Special Olympics

There will be an Indian Taco dinner Sunday, March 1st, from 11:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. at the school. Proceeds from the dinner will send local athletes to the special Olympics. Donations are also being accepted.

Prom Dress Fest 2015

Shop, sell or just come out to look at the first annual Prom Dress Fest. This is a great way to save money, make money and help the Indiahoma Cheerleaders all at the same time. The idea is a formal attire consignment sale.

Bring any items you would like to sell (formal dresses, shoes and accessories) to the Warrior Café Friday & Saturday, February 27th-28th between 9 a.m. and 6 p.m.

Shop for any of the above items Friday, Saturday and Sunday, March 6th—8th, from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Pick up your money and/or unsold items on Friday March 13 or Saturday, March 14th from 9 a.m.—6 p.m. You will receive 80% of the sale price, while the Warrior Cheerleaders receive a commission of 20% for finding your buyer.

Come on out to this win-win-win event! Contact Colleen Longacre at 580-704-9070 for more information or join us on Facebook: Prom Dress Fest 2015.
