Students Win Farm Bureau Safety Poster Contest

Third and fifth grade students participated in the Comanche County Farm Bureau Safety Poster Contest recently. The posters remind people to stay safe during the holiday season. The winners were announced this week and four Indianhoma students took home honors and prize money. Our students created four of the top five posters! Here are the winners and the prize they received:

2nd Place: Jasmon Surman, $30.00

3rd Place: Sarah Whitman, $25.00

4th Place: Kentlee Abbott, $20.00

5th Place: Kylee Elliot, $15.00

Robotics Competition

Indianhoma Robotics teams will be competing in Lawton on Saturday, Jan. 23rd. Please come out and see this exciting event where students drive robots they have built themselves around an obstacle course of sorts. Robots must move spheres to a designated area to score. Our robotics teams have always done well and went to state last year. We hope to see you at the competition in building #300 of Great Plains Vo-Tech Center Saturday at 11:00 a.m.
