Art is Messy Fun

Ms. Whitman's elementary art students enjoyed paint slinging as they created portfolios for this year's artwork. The students splatter-painted the portfolios in the manner of the famous artist Jackson Pollock.

The students also created visual textures by painting with various objects such as sponges, making patterns, and crayon rubbings. These textures were then used to create a "fast food" collage.

Bus Safety Lesson

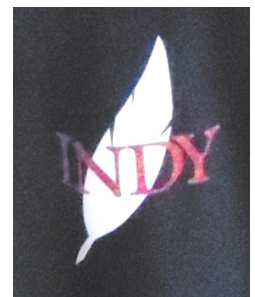

Indiahoma early elementary students were treated to a bus safety lesson. The program was engaging with cartoon clips and the help of a mini-bus.

The program was put on by Farm Bureau. We encourage you to ask your student what they learned during the lesson and reinforce bus safety at home. Even if a student does not ride the bus daily, he may find himself on a bus for a field trip. Knowing bus safety procedures is extremely important to keeping our kids out of harm's way.
