News, Student Style

The Indianoma FFA has been working very hard to compete in opening ceremonies and creed contests. They attended a contest in Hollis and one at Big Pasture. The teams consisted of: Team 1: Hopie, Sarah, Kendal, Felicia, Katharine, Taylor; Team 2: Zack, Adreanna, Morgan, Sarah, Kasey, Katharine; and team 3: Zack, Olivia, Paten, Jimmie, Madison, Adreanna. Brandi, Alex and Sarah also gave the FFA Creed.

On 11/1/11 Indianoma High School girls and boys had their first basketball games of the season. It was Geronimo vs. Indianoma at Indianoma.

The girls played first. The starting players were Brooke Roberts, Kelsey Tahmahkera, K'cia Jones, Mandi Kimble and Brittany Blakesley. Brooke made the first shot and the girls showed Geronimo who was boss. The final score was 58-13. The Indianoma girls played amazingly!

The boys played after the girls. The boys played a good game and had the stands cheering throughout the whole game. Indianoma beat Geronimo 76-27, showing the Geronimo boys who the boss was too.

Archery is a good sport for students to learn because it is fun and it is something for students who do not play other sports. We do not know if we will be having archery this year, but we hope so. There will probably be some changes. Instead of shooting in the auditorium, we plan on shooting in the Ag Barn. If we do get to have archery, we will make it the best one yet.

A reminder to TSA (Technical Student Association) members: You better get to work on your projects. Remember, you have to have four or more projects done to go to state competition.

On Thursday, November 3rd, Betty Bigbow drove our 8th grade class to the Lawton Public Library to turn in our reading logs for a Teen Read Month competition that encourages reading by offering cool prizes. The Oklahoma teen who reads the most pages will win a Nook color. The library with the most readers gets $250 worth of teen books. The two teens who read the most pages for the Lawton Library will win an iPod Nano or a Nook touch e-reader. Everyone who turned in a reading log to the Lawton Public Library got a prize for participating. Indianoma students read approximately 8500 pages.

Mrs. Perry took us on a tour of the library. We saw tons of books, movies, the genealogy room and computers. We met people she works with and saw some other interesting people. The library is big. It was so awesome, I hope I get to go again.

At the end of our tour, we gave our reading logs to a sweet lady named Heather. She is the children and youth librarian at Lawton Public Library. She gave us Goody Bags that were filled with aviator sun glasses, skeletons, hacky sacks, candy, rubber ducks, moving pumpkin toys, and necklaces.

Heather and Tom made us pizza which we quickly ate up. We also had sun chips and Cherry Kool-Aid. The food was good, the Kool-Aid stained our lips.

When we were done eating, we learned a wonderful new game called hacky sack. Tom taught us how to play. We got in a circle and passed the hacky sack to each other without using our hands. It was great. We weren't very good but still it was fun. Tom was awesome.

Before we left we took a group picture in front of the library.

On the way home everyone was happy. We put on our awesome glasses, played with toys, laughed and giggled and thought of the awesome day we had!

Reported by the 8th grade class, all 14 of them!

From Mrs. Perry & the 8th Grade Class, THANK YOU Heather & Tom for your hospitality, Betty Bigbow for driving the bus and being part of our field trip, to Mr. Ellis & Mrs. Voegeli for approving the field trip and to Lisa Hughes for greeting my 7th hour class when we were a bit late getting back.
