Assembly Honors Top Elementary Students

Readers of the month: Kindergarten: Ely Ingram, 5th: Jaden Davis, and 3rd: Craig Chibitty

PreK student of the month: Kale Tanner.

2nd grade student of the month: Jasmon Surmon

4th grade student of the month: Scout Neugebauer

6th grade student of the month: Ethan Fires

Not pictured: Kindergarten student of the month Isabela Ramirez and first grade reader of the month Modesto Bosques.

Indiahoma Elementary held the monthly assembly on Wed., Oct. the 8th. The first grade put on the program and did an outstanding job of performing, "Columbus Sails West." The part of Columbus was played by Gavin Miles, King Ferdinand was portrayed by Dawson Banks and Queen Isabella was represented by Kailee Tanner. The rest of the first grade class narrated the program. Ask any first grader, and they can tell you about Columbus' first voyage and probably sing you a song!

After the performance, students of the month and readers of the month were recognized. They were rewarded with a certificate and gift card.

Students who show citizenship and character have their names put on W.O.W. cards throughout the month. Each month cards are drawn for prizes. This month Skylar Young, Shyanne Escobedo, Eli Fires and Madilynn Pier-son received jumbo candy bars for their outstanding behavior.

Academic Team is 8-2

The Indiahoma high school academic team is going strong with a winning season. They have defeated Snyder, Frederick, Grandfield and Sterling. Each match was a double-header, which made the team record 8-0. However, a couple of heartbreaking defeats to a strong Big Pasture team has changed the record to 8-2.

The team has been on the road for three weeks, but return home on October 23rd. They will host Fletcher High in the Indiahoma School Library around 4:15. Please come out and support the team.

Fall Festival to be Held Sat., Oct. 18th.

The Indiahoma Church of Christ will host a fall festival on Saturday, October 18th, starting at 4:30 p.m. The event will be held at the church and is open to children from toddlers to sixth grade and their parents.

The festivities will include games, treats and prizes. There will be free face painting and hot dogs.

The theme for this year's event is "Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good; his love endures forever." Psalms 107:1

Deadline for Red Ribbon Week Bows is Monday!

The deadline to purchase a wooden bow to hang on the school fence is Monday, Oct. 13th. The bows will be created by Indiahoma students and the proceeds will go to a student service project. The name of the person or business purchasing the bow will be printed on the bow. You may also honor an individual or organization by having their name printed on the bow. The bows are $25.00 each. To purchase a bow, call Nicole Hannabass, student council sponsor at 246-3333.

The bows will honor red ribbon week, which reminds all of our stand against drug abuse.

All-School Evacuation Drill Scheduled Monday, Oct.13

We will be testing our all-school evacuation procedures on Monday afternoon, Oct. 13th. Elementary students will evacuate to First Baptist Church. 7-12th grade will go to the mini-mall. We will return to school time permitting. Should the drill extend to the normal dismissal time, you make pick your child up at the evacuation site. Only persons listed as having permission to check students out of school will be allowed to take students from the evacuation site. Forms were sent home and included in enrollment paperwork.

No after-school classes will be held Monday due to teacher conferences.

Students who received giant candy bars for being caught showing great character are: (top left to right) Skylar Young, Madilynn Pierson, and Shyanne Escobedo. Bottom left: Eli Fires.

These students had their names entered into a drawing of W.O.W. (warriors on watch) cards. The cards were given to students exhibiting outstanding citizenship and character. We are proud to have them at our school.

Menu for October 13th

Buffalo Gal Inspires and Makes the World a Prettier Place

The Buffalo Gal Gallery and Art Co-operative inspires local residents to create beautiful works of art. The business, located in the mini-mall, provide art lessons and fellowship. When the yearbook class dropped in this week to sell ads, they were sewing pine cone coils onto gourd art. The pieces varied in complexity and adornment, but all were beautiful.

The gallery sells pieces of art including photography, paintings, gourd art just to name a few media. They are open Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. They are also available by appointment. You may contact Diana Beach-Stamper at 580-512-6301 or Katherine Hunt at 580-246-3506.

The yearbook class would like to thank the Buffalo Gal for their purchase of a yearbook ad. Any business or individual who would like to purchase an ad can call the school at 246-3333 and ask for Ms. Whitman in the library. Ads are $25.00 for 1/4 a page, $45.00 for 1/2 a page and $80.00 for a full page. A free write up and/or ad will be placed in this newsletter for those purchasing yearbook ads. These are distributed to the elementary students in their backpacks, placed near the office for secondary students and visitors, and placed in the post office and mini mall for the community. Newsletters are also posted on the school's web site, getting your business on the web. One week is free with a 1/4 page ad, 2 weeks with 1/2 and three weeks with a full page. They ads will be spread out instead of being placed in consecutive weeks.
