Students Participate in 9/12 Event

Students across the country commemorated the spirit of volunteerism and resilience as they simultaneously sang the national anthem on Sept. 12th. At 12:00 p.m. central time, Indiahoma junior and senior high students gathered in the gym to sing The Star Spangled Banner. At the same time thousands of other students were gathered to do the very same thing.

This was part of the 9/12 Generation Project. The project is designed to inspire and educate students with the positive lessons of humanity, kindness, and citizenship of 9/12 – the day after 9/11 – when the Nation came together to help heal New York.

Indiahoma student Elizabeth Jones and technology teacher

Stewart Wood have a special bond with the national anthem, as they have viewed the original penned version during a Technology Student Association national event in Baltimore, MD.

Charlois Street Closed Before and After School

Parents and other commuters are reminded that Charlois Street is closed during the time immediately before and after school. These are times when high number of students are crossing the street. This closure is a measure to ensure the safety of students. As young people, students do not always pay enough attention to their surroundings, requiring extra precautions to be taken. Please help us keep our students safe by using an alternate route during these times of day.

Picture Retakes

Fri., Oct. 10th

Blunck's photography will be on campus Friday to take school pictures for new students and students absent or unhappy with pictures taken earlier this year.

Cross country and elementary basketball teams will also take group pictures that day. Look for sport photo package order forms coming home with your student.

Culture Display Aids Students' Understanding

Social Studies teacher Rick Hodges recently displayed items he acquired during his 27 years of military service in his classroom. The display aided a unit on, "What is Culture?" Students had earlier learned what makes up the study of geography. Now they are learning the components of culture which include religion, art, language and food. These components are passed from one generation to the next.

Mr. Hodges' collection included items from Mali, Germany, and Iraq. Students were able to see clothes, wall hangings, matryoshka dolls, dishes as well as many other items.

Warrior fans may buy T-shirts, hoodies and more online through October 8th.
