TAPR Overview

- Due to changes in legislation, the performance report formerly known as the Academic Excellence Indicator System (AEIS) report is now the Texas Academic Performance Report (TAPR)
- AEIS was published from 1990-91 to 2011-12. Archived AEIS reports may be found on the AEIS Archives page through TEA
- The TAPR provides information on the performance of students in each school and district in Texas. The reports also provide extensive information on school and district staff, programs, and student demographics.

Texas Academic Performance Reports

The Texas Academic Performance Reports (TAPR) pull together a wide range of information on the performance of students in each school and district in Texas every year. Performance is shown disaggregated by student groups, including ethnicity and low income status. The reports also provide extensive information on school and district staff, programs, and student demographics.

From this website you can access TAPRs for every public school, district, or region of Texas.

Texas Academic Performance Reports for 2012-13 are now available.

The TAPRs were previously known as the Academic Excellence Indicator System (AEIS) Reports. Those reports were published from 1990-91 to 2011-12. They may be found at the AEIS Archive.

School Violence Prevention/Violence Intervention Policies and Procedures

- Check In Computer Program - Each campus office: visitors sign in, scan drivers licenses
- Monthly Emergency drills and tabletop scenarios
- District staff trained on issues regarding bullying, sexual harassment and child abuse
- Mandatory drug testing for participants in extra-curricular school activities and student drivers
- Red Ribbon Week activities and through the D.A.R.E. program
- TBSI Non-Violent Crisis Intervention training was made available to District employees
- Emergency Operations Manual is updated each year
- All campuses have one main entry into the building via the office.
- Unannounced campus security checks
- Campus counselors provide students and teachers with information regarding dating violence (HS,MS), bullying and personal safety
- Character Building Programs at TPS, TIS,
- District Safety Audit every three years

Our district is continuing to study and implement safe school policies and procedures. We are also continually seeking ways to involve our staff, students, parents and the community in our effort to have a positive safe school environment.
