Team LHS English Expo competed in English Expo XXXI via Zoom on Saturday, February 20, 2021 and Saturday, February 27, 2021. This is the first team Lovington has sent to English Expo.

Twenty-Four contests in four categories (Art Contests, Writing Contests, Speaking Contests, and Skills Contests) were available for competition.

Twenty LHS students representing 9th, 10th, 11th, and 12th grades competed in 16 of 24 possible competitions. LHS placed in 15 of the 16 contests in which they competed, bringing home 23 medals for Lovington High School.

Lovington High School won four 1st place medals; six 2nd place medals; seven 3rd place medals; four 4th place medals; two 5th place medals.

Lucinda Laro sponsored the English Expo XXXI team. Noah Marshall, Bruno Bruelhart, Marissa Rodriquez, Alicia Marquez, and Lucinda Laro served as judges and monitors. Team LHS was required to provide one teacher to serve as judges and monitors for every five students entered in competition. Judges and monitors are assigned to the Junior High School division and other competitions in which they have none of their own students.

English Expo will hold an Awards Ceremony via Zoom on Tuesday, March 10, 2021.
