

MAINTENANCE OF FACILITIES

The board of education believes that a well-maintained facility is more conducive to learning and that budgeting can be more structured and predictable with a maintenance schedule. Preventive maintenance can also save money on postponed repairs.

Preventive and corrective maintenance procedures shall be developed and implemented to ensure that each site and building will be clean, in good repair and maintained with consideration for function and aesthetic value.

Reference: State Department of Education, Standards for Accreditation of Elementary, Middle, Secondary and Area Vocational and Technical Level Schools, 1994, p. 91.