

FACULTY TEACHER ETHICS

The board of education expects all members of the faculty to maintain high standards of conduct. These standards include the following:

The maintenance of fair and courteous professional relationships with pupils, parents, staff members and others.

The maintenance of their own efficiency, effectiveness and knowledge of developments in their fields of work.

The transaction of all official business with the properly designated authorities of the school system, other school districts and the State Department of Education.

The establishment of friendly and professional cooperation between the community and the school district.

The placement of the welfare of the students as the first concern of the school district.

Restraint from using school contacts and privileges to promote partisan politics, sectarian religious views or selfish propaganda of any kind.

The proper use and protection of all school properties, equipment and materials.

The use of constructive criticism toward improvement of the school system.
