

PROMOTION BASED ON PROFICIENCY TESTING

The board of education will comply with all laws and State Department of Education regulations concerning promotion options based on attainment of desired levels of competencies. Therefore, based on tests pursuant to Section 1210.508 and State Board of Education regulations, a student may attain high school graduation regardless of course credits earned.