

USE OF RESONABLE FORCE

Realizing that there are conditions that require school employees to appropriately touch students, the Board of Education approves of the use of reasonable force in situations including, but not limited to:

1. Administration of first aid.
2. Intervening in a fight.
3. To prevent an accident or injury.
4. Protecting one's self.
5. Providing appropriate care the disabled.
6. Moving through a crowd in an emergency.
7. Employing passive restraint.

Nothing in this policy prohibits the district from acting against any employee that abuses a student or protects any employee who abuses a student.
