

“Every Student Succeeds Act” Military Identifier Form

Student Name: _____ School Year: _____

“Every Student Succeeds Act” is a new federal education law that was passed and took effect in the 2017-2018 school-year. School age children in military families will be assigned an identification number known as a “military student identifier”. Under the new Federal Education Law schools will be able to monitor their academic progress to assure their academic needs are being met as they move from one military base to another and state to state.

Determining If a Student Falls Under the ESSA Military Subgroup

Please answer Yes or No

_____ Is the parent a full-time member of the regular Army, Navy, Air Force, Marine Corps, or Coast Guard?

If yes, the student should be included in the military subgroup. You do not need to answer any other questions.

If no, proceed to the next question.

_____ Is the parent a member of the Army Reserves, Navy Reserve, Air Force Reserves, Marine Corps Reserve or Coast Guard Reserve who has been ordered to active duty?

If yes, the student should be included in the military subgroup/ A reservist who has been ordered to active duty should have a copy of their duty orders indication that they are currently in active service.

If the parent is not a member of the reserves, or is a member of the reserves who is not on active duty status, proceed to the next question.

_____ Is the parent a member of the Nation Guard or Air National Guard who has been ordered to active duty?

If yes, the student should be included in the military subgroup. A National Guard or Air National Guard member who has been ordered to active duty should have a copy of their duty orders indicating that they are currently in National active status.

If not, and if the student does not have another parent in the military, the student should not be included in the military subgroup.

Parent Signature _____ Date: _____