

How to change your computer password

After you log into the computer press Ctrl Alt Delete as you did when you logged in. It will bring up a list of options and one will be Change a password. Click on it and it will ask for the old password, which is the one you just used to log in. Then it will ask for a New password and then confirm that password.