Intro- Impact of French and Indian War on British/Colonists Relationship.

A. The Deep roots of Revolution

1. Changing Attitudes/Philosophies-

2. Republicanism-

3. Influence of radical Whigs-

B. Mercantilism and Colonial Grievances
1. Mercantilism (best explanation of mercantilism I've seen in a text)-
   Consequence of mercantilism on British/colonial relationship-

   British expectations-

   British Regulations- i.e. Navigation Law of 1650

   Currency problems-

   Royal veto-

C. The Merits and Menace of Mercantilism
D. The Stamp Act Uproar

1. British Debt-

2. Prime Minister George Grenville-

3. Sugar Act of 1764-

4. Quartering Act of 1765-

5. Stamp Act of 1765-

6. Grenville's rationale-
7. Colonial Reaction-

8. "No taxation without representation"-

9. "Legislative authority v. taxing authority"-

E. Forced Repeal of the Stamp Act

1. Stamp Act Congress of 1765-

2. Nonimportation agreements-
3. Sons of Liberty and Daughters of Liberty

4. Impact of nonimportation on Britain-

5. Repeal of Stamp Act-

6. Declaratory Act-

F. The Townshend Tea Tax and the Boston "Massacre"

1. The Townshend Acts of 1767-

2. Suspension of New York Legislature-
3. Boston Massacre-

G. The Seditious Committees of Correspondence

1. King George III and Lord North-

2. Sam Adams and Committees of Correspondence-

H. Tea Brewing in Boston

1. British East India Company-
2. Mass demonstrations-

3. Governor Thomas Hutchinson-

4. Boston Tea Party (1773)-

I. Parliament Passes the "Intolerable Acts"

   1. Intolerable Acts-

   2. Boston Port Act-
3. New Quartering Act

4. Impact of Quebec Act

J. Bloodshed

1. First Continental Congress (1774)

2. The Association

3. Lexington and Concord
K. Imperial Strength and Weaknesses

L. American Pluses and Minuses

M. A Thin Line of Heroes

Example of Valley Forge-
Camp Followers-

African-Americans-

Marquis de Lafayette-

Baron von Steuben-