

Award-Winning Andover Public Schools

Andover Students

ACT scores 2.4 higher than national average

More than 90% seek education after high school

3 admitted to military academies in 2014

91 National Merit scholars since 1999

76%
AP exam passing rate in 2013-2014

Governor's Achievement Award Recipients

Given to top 5% of schools in Kansas

Andover Central Middle School 2010-2013

Wheatland Elementary School
2013

Robert M. Martin Elementary School
2012

Nationally Recognized

Andover named best city in Kansas for young families by NerdWallet.com

nerdwallet

Niche.com named Andover the best school district in the Wichita Metro Area

Andover Central High School received a bronze medal ranking in U.S.
News & World Reports' Best High Schools of 2014

Andover Public Schools is one of only 18 public schools in the nation with a Saturday Academy, bringing hundreds of students to Social Studies departments to our secondary schools.

Andover Teachers

Andover Activities

ATHLETICS

Two Andover football players and one coach were selected to be part of the 42nd Kansas Shrine Bowl. The Andover High School boys' soccer team took 4th place in the state soccer championship. The Andover Central High School football team won the 4A Regional Championship in 2014.

The AHS girls' tennis team won 2013 & 2014 state championships

ARTS

Andover Theatre departments have won numerous "Jester" awards for outstanding drama productions. Andover High School's Thespian Troupe #3540 won a Gold Honor Troupe award in 2015 and a Silver Honor Troupe award in 2014. Andover middle and high school students win Scholastic Art Awards every year.

COMMUNICATION

EXTRA! EXTRA!

Andover journalism students won the 4A or 5A state championships six times.

One Andover student was named the Kansas High School Journalist of the Year.

Two Andover Scholar's Bowl teams won three championships in 2014. Andover Middle School's yearbook program won an Award of Excellence in 2013. Andover High School's broadcast program is nationally recognized.