

December 2017

Eagle News

What a wonderful time of year it is at Eisenhower Elementary. We are starting our holiday season off with giving back to our community through a school-wide food drive. Please send non-perishable food items to school through Dec. 13th. We will be doing some caroling at the base on Dec. 4th and having holiday parties on the 20th. Please feel free to join us for any of our holiday activities and then enjoy your 2 week break with your family. We look forward to seeing you all after the holidays on January 4th. May your season be joyful and blessed.

Skate week is Dec 4th -8th

- K-5th grade students will skate during their PE times
- Skates, knee pads, and wrist guards provided
- Students may bring a bike helmet to use
- Roller Mini Camp being offered Dec. 8th from 3-4:45 by the Enid Roller Girls for $10 per student

PTO news: We are excited to announce that we raised $1,939.86 for our school during our catalogue fundraiser. We also raised $301.11 through dine out nights. You all are AWESOME. Thank you so much for supporting our school. Our next BIG event will be chocolate Bar sales in late Jan. and into Feb. Be sure to check out our teacher angel tree in the foyer for teacher gift ideas

Christmas parties: Parties will be Dec. 20th. Pre-K party will be from 1:15-2. All students will sing Christmas carols in the cafeteria from 2-2:15. K-5th grade parties will be from 2:15-3. PTO will be providing a craft for each class to do during their parties. Homeroom parents will be coordinating party refreshments with teachers and parent volunteers.

Important Dates: Caroling for the Base Christmas tree lighting 12/4 at 5:00 pm, Chili's Dine-out all day on 12/5, Skate week 12/4-12/8 during PE, Christmas parties on 12/20, Christmas Break 12/21- 1/3