

October 2017 Eagle News

It is hard to believe we finish the 1st 9 weeks of school this month. The school year is already flying by. Thank you to all who attended Parent Teacher conferences. At Eisenhower, we believe that the partnership between school and family is vital to student success, and communication is one of the keys to this. A goal we have this year to help with communication is to make information more available to you through technology and our web site. The office, as well as teachers, are working on updating their website regularly. Our PTO does a great job of pushing out information through social media and be watching for "Peach Jar" flyers from the school and the district.

Come join us on Thursday, Nov. 2nd from 6:00-7:30 pm for the Glow Run. Each child who participates will get 2 glow items to wear during the run for free. We will have yard games and food available for purchase from 6-7, and the run will be from 7:00-7:30. Prizes awarded by age group and other categories. We will also have extra glow items for sale and glow face painting and a hair station that night. Come join us for a fun family involvement night at the Glow Run!!

PTO: Thank you to all that attended our 1st PTO meeting.
