

The Flatonia ISD School Health Advisory Council (SHAC) will be meeting at noon on Wednesday, April 6, 2022 at Room 245 in the High School Building. The following items will be discussed in open session:

1. Call to Order

Robin Branecky called the meeting to order at 12:00 p.m. Those in attendance were: Ashley Beeman, Nurse Brenda Selzer, Ashley Grahmann, and Robin Branecky.

2. Update, Review, & Edit the following Policies & Procedures:

- a. Immunizations
 - i. Clinic
 - ii. Compliance
- b. Wellness Policy Review

Nurse Selzer stated that there are a few students that are going into Kindergarten that still need their immunizations, and a lot of sixth graders going into seventh grade. She also stated that she will be entering reminder letters in their report cards.

The committee reviewed the current Wellness Policy and will come back next month to review or update the plan as needed.

3. Review Potential Health Books/Curriculum for Upcoming Adoption

Mrs. Grahmann reviewed the Health textbook for consideration for adoption by the District. She noted that the book is inline with the TEKS and is the only book approved by the state of Texas for adoption for Health. All members agreed to use the book in Health class.

4. Follow-Up to Baseline Impact Testing for Student Athletes

Nurse Selzer stated that the Baseline Impact Testing for Student Athletes is moving ahead. She stated that at this point, the District will be testing 200 athletes and cheerleaders to start their baseline testing.

5. Update on Cafeteria Audit

Robin Branecky stated that the cafeteria had a clean audit on their recent review.

6. Update on Covid-19 at Flatonia ISD

Nurse Selzer stated that the number of Covid-19 cases has remained at zero for a while.

7. May SHAC Agenda Items to Include:

- a. Plans for SHAC for the 2022-2023 School Year
- b. Update on Cafeteria for Summer Feeding

The SHAC agreed at the next meeting to review and set goals for the upcoming school year. Items mentioned at the time were Aim for Success.

The SHAC agreed to meet again on Wednesday, May 4, 2022 at noon.

8. Adjournment

With no further business, Robin Branecky adjourned the meeting at 12:52 p.m.
