EXPLUSION – ALTERNATIVE EDUCATION

Superintendent Brian Golden recommended the board uphold the decision of Michael Bane, Alternative Education Director, to expel a 9th grade student, for the remainder of the 2015 fall semester for distribution and possession of tobacco while on school grounds. The student was present at the board meeting and was represented by the parent who spoke on the student's behalf. After a closed hearing, Mr. Golden encouraged the student to avoid further incidents as the student is no longer eligible for the district's Second Chance program. Mr. Golden stated that the student will be permitted to return to the AE program in January, 2016, thereby giving the student an opportunity to recover academic credit lost this semester. Brian Coston made a motion, seconded by Jesse Clark, to uphold the expulsion. Vote 5-0
