

Do not return to school for at least 24 hours after fever is completely gone (without using fever-reducing medication). A fever is 100* or more.

Any child sent home with a fever should not return to school the next day.