TEACHER SPOTLIGHT

Celicia Hamilton has been working for Porter Schools since 2012 and has amassed an impressive sum of $676,228 in grants for the school district. When asked on her thoughts about being named Teacher of the Year for the 2017-2018 school year, her response was, "I am very humbled and honored because I am surrounded by amazing teachers." She went on to say, "My daily prayer has always been for God to use me to serve and love unconditionally in my teaching practices."

Mrs. Hamilton plans on continuing her endeavor to implement more grants to the success of Porter Schools future.

STAR SENIOR NATE BOYD

Star Senior Nate Boyd is a 3 year starter for the Porter Pirates football team and 4 year starter for the high school baseball team. When asked on what he would like to be remembered for at Porter Schools he replied, "I would like to be remembered as an athlete and a leader." After high school he plans on attending college pursuing a Criminology degree.

ORGANIZATIONS

The Porter FFA Chapter held their annual Watermelon feed on August 21st. The FFA officers put together an exciting event to kick off their chapter activities for the year. Members paid their dues, filled out their required paperwork, played games, and ended the evening eating watermelon.

SPORTS

Jr. Bailey Webb, Jr. Brooklin Smith, Jr. Madison Barnett, Jr. Hallee Boyd

The Porter High School softball team has had a slow start to their season with a record of 3-5, but they plan on picking up the pace and stacking up more wins to add to their record. With returning starters Jr. Shortstop Hallee Boyd, Jr. 1st baseman Madison Barnett, Jr. 2nd baseman Brooklin Smith, and Jr. Pitcher Bailey Webb feel they are due for a comeback.

Meet The Pirates: The Pirate Football Team and Cheerleaders held a meet the pirates for community members to promote the upcoming football season.

The Pirate football team has set sail for a new season. With a new Head Coach, and returning starters at both defense and offense the Pirates have been working together all summer. They also have a lot of new talent which certainly has the team not only confident but loose. This group of guys should excite the Porter community as the season kicked off in Mounds on Friday night.

Head Coach Prentice Joseph along with his assistant coaches are confident that Pirate fans will not be disappointed by the teams performance this season. The players look forward to being together on the field and hope that the stands are packed at home and away games.

What Not To Wear

Socks With Sandals

The warm summer months are beginning to fade, and soon enough our fashionable sandals and flip flops will be out of season. But some people won't be putting away their summer footwear just yet. The Socks with Sandals trend is probably one of the worst trends to hit the fashion world. Not only does this look make me cringe, but it doesn't compliment any outfit. The next time you reach for your socks and sandals, just remember that this look isn't doing you any favors.

Joke of the Week

What do you call a pig that does karate?
A Pork Chop!

WORLD NEWS

In world news, Hurricane Lane is the biggest weather threat in Hawaii in decades.

In other news, Trump says "How can anyone talk about impeachment?" The President gives himself an A+ and says "I don't know how you can impeach somebody who has done a great job with our government." Trump also said "Everybody would be very poor," as he feels he has made strides in improving economic conditions. In related news Trump says longstanding legal practice of flopping "almost ought to be illegal."

In entertainment, Next seasons Big Bang Theory will be its last. Also, Jennifer Lopez rocks VMAs with epic journey through her musical past. Crazy Rich Asians sequel is in early development. The Meg sinks its teeth into the old-fashioned monster movie, and Idris Elba as James Bond? Fans are shaken and stirred at the possibility.
