The Lyndon High School football team is undefeated so far this season, with a record of 7-0. Their biggest opponent this year has been no other than themselves. Facing an abundance of injuries, the team is trying their best to overcome that difficult obstacle. The boys who aren't injured are really having to step up. "The next guys in line have to be ready when their number is called," added Coach Brent Hoelting. The seniors have exhibited their leadership skills over the season, providing guidance to the underclassman during these rough patches. "I think it has been fantastic and that is a real credit to them and how hard they work," included Coach Hoelting.

Every year the football team has a theme. This year the boys' theme is "Brotherhood." They also have a yearly motto, "Be your Best," this season. This was chosen according to Coach Hoelting's idea that if you try to be your best at everything you do you will be successful.

The football team will attempt to continue their success on Friday, October 21st when they play Chase County at home.
