

Senior Spotlight

Jasmine Kempel

1. What advice would you give to underclassmen?

Get involved in everything you can and don't be afraid to try new things.

2. What has been your favorite class and why?

Anything with Mrs. Patterson because I love all the business classes.

3. What sports/activities have you been involved in throughout high school?

FBLA, Band, FCA, Book Club, Forensics, Scholar's Bowl, and Yearbook.

4. What has been your all-time favorite memory from school?

Winning league forensics two years in a row and making it to nationals in FBLA.

5. What are you plans after high school?

I plan to attend Emporia State University to study something business related.

6. Who do you look up to? Why?

Mrs. Patterson, because she has really helped me many times throughout high school. She is super nice and helpful and I would love to be a lot like her.

7. What is something about yourself that would surprise others?

I am a really big hockey fan.

8. If you could be someone for 24 hours, who would it be and why?

Simone Biles, because I want to know what it would be like to be the best gymnast in the world.

9. What advice would you give to underclassmen?

Don't judge anyone by their appearance. You will never know what you're missing out on, unless you dive into life and live life with no regrets.

10. What has been your favorite class and why?

Any science class would be my favorite class. I'm a science geek.

11. What sports/activities have you been involved in throughout high school?

FCA, FBLA, Volunteering, and going to games.

12. What has been your all-time favorite memory from school?

There are two memories. The one was my sophomore year when Mr. Hoelting played us a jump scare video about a snake found at a water treatment plant. The last one is my junior year when Cole, Levi, and Owen had taken a glass pan off way too early and it shattered into a million pieces. I couldn't stop laughing that day.

13. What are you plans after high school?

The next step academy, then, off to college to become a coroner.

14. Who do you look up to? Why?

Sherlock Holmes. A lot of people don't know that he was a real person. He is the true reason I chose the path I am going.

15. What is something about yourself that would surprise others?

I study a lot of criminology.

16. If you could be someone for 24 hours, who would it be and why?

There are a lot of people I would like to be. I can't just pick one. Come on, it's just not fair!
