

National Honor Society

By Michaela Forkenbrock

Eight new members were inducted into the National Honor Society on May 3, 2017 at Green Acres Restaurant. After the dinner, a keynote address was given by Mr. Alex Wendling, LHS Alumni, which targeted the importance of having “grit”. In his message he focused on how his education at Lyndon High School helped prepare him for the unknown future.

The core of the evening was a ceremony to induct eight new members who demonstrate excellence in the areas of scholarship, service, character, and leadership. The inductees for this year are Ana Emley, Josie Crawford, McKenzy Harsch, Meghan Wendling, Mariah Wells, Garrett McCoy, Kennedy Criqui, and Regan Martin. Their induction into the Lyndon Chapter of National Honor Society not only recognizes them for their achievements, but challenges them to develop further through active involvement in school activities and community service. These eight students will join Michaela Forkenbrock, Gretchen Newberry, Brittani VanWinkle, Lauren Volkman, Clairra Spurgeon, Mason Slusher, and Dexton Swinehart as the 2017-2018 Lyndon NHS Chapter.
