

2017 Winter Royalty

Representing the Freshmen class are attendants Aubrey Beyer and Matt Anschutz.

Aubrey Shea Beyer is the daughter of Layla and Shane Sullivan and Nathan and Lila Beyer. She has been involved in FBLA, Cheer, Forensics, Volleyball, and track. A fun fact about Aubrey is that she has not grown since 3rd grade. Her favorite high school memory was watching Teagan Sturdy get hit in the face with a volleyball during her 1st varsity match. After high school Aubrey wants to go to Kansas University and become a dentist.

Matthew Anschutz is the son of Julie and Shane Anschutz. He is involved in Band, FBLA, scholars bowl, football, basketball and golf. Something interesting about our freshmen attendants is that they were crown bearers in 1st grade together and 7th grade attendants for 8th grade promotion together. In the future Matt would like to graduate from high school and go to college.

Representing the Sophomore class are attendants Emma Wiley and Patrick Jones.

Emma Lynn Wiley is the daughter of Nick Wiley and Robin McKinnon. She is involved in FBLA, track, volleyball, and is the basketball manager. Emma's favorite high school memory are the feasts they have made in Mr. Baker's class. Emma is undecided on what the future holds for her.

Patrick Arlon Jones is the son of Don and Ruth Jones. He is involved in Band and plays basketball and golf. Patrick's most memorable high school moment was dislocating his knee cap freshman year. In the future Patrick plans to graduate with a degree in physical therapy.

Representing the Junior class are attendants Michaela Forkenbrock and Leandro Ludi.

Michaela Marie Forkenbrock is the daughter of David and Diana Forkenbrock. She has been involved in FBLA, NHS, site council, honor flight, basketball and softball. Michaela's favorite high school memory is National FBLA. She very much enjoyed meeting new friends, going to the dance with 1,000 other people, and watching Mr. P open his coke and spray it everywhere. Michaela plans to attend Emporia State University and major in elementary education.

Leandro Ludi is the son of Rolf and Cristiane Ludi and host parents Jana and Brian Willard. He has been involved in FBLA, band, and basketball. Leandro is also a dirtbike enthusiast. Some of Leandro's favorite memories this year include racing dirtbikes and winning races, as well as riding with Jacob Willard and Nathan Miller. When he returns to Switzerland Leandro plans to pursue an education to be a cruise ship captain.

The first senior candidates are Lainey Beyer and Kyle Baker.

Lainey Nicole Beyer is the daughter of Nathan and Lila Beyer and Shane and Layla Sullivan. She has been involved in Student Council, FCA, FBLA, Forensics, and school plays. Lainey has also participated in volleyball, cheer and track. Lainey's favorite high school moments happen every day that she gets to be with Ellie. Lainey plans to attend Pittsburgh State University and become the coolest teacher ever! Go Gorillas!

Kyle James Baker is the son of Pat and Lisa Baker. He has been involved in Student Council, NHS, and FBLA. Kyle also plays football, basketball, baseball, golf, and powerlifting. Kyle's favorite memories of high school are spending late nights with friends after Friday night football games. After high school Kyle plans to attend Wichita State University and major in biomedical engineering.

The second queen and king candidates are Rachel Owens and Beau Brecheisen.

Rachel Elizabeth Owens is the daughter of Rob and Donna Owens. She has been involved in FBLA, Softball, volleyball, and powerlifting. Rachel's favorite high school memories involve Rylan, Kyle, and physics class fun. Rachel plans to attend either Wichita State University or Emporia State University.

Beau David Brecheisen is the son of Melody and Dave Brecheisen, he has been involved in FBLA, Football, Basketball, Baseball, golf, and track. Beau's favorite high school memory occurred in Mr. Hoelting's public speaking class, while a group of guys were trying to do something, he fell and snapped Mr. Hoelting's yardstick in half. After High school Beau plans to attend Butler Community College and major in athletic training.

The final candidates are Marina Payne and Rylan Burns.

Marina Kathleen Payne is the daughter of Lana Payne and Duane Payne. She has been involved in FBLA and Scholars Bowl. Marina's favorite high school memories include attending the FBLA national leadership conference in Omaha, Nebraska, and also listening to the odd but hilarious conversations in physics and composition. Marina plans to attend Kansas State University to major in chemical engineering.

Rylan Mitchell Burns is the son of Richard and Carmen Burns. He's been involved in Student council, FBLA, NHS, and plays football, basketball, and powerlifting. Rylan's favorite high school moments, and I quote, are "the locker room". Rylan plans to attend Kansas State University, but is still undecided on a field of study.
