

- Field Trips – If you have not yet returned your permission slips for our upcoming field trips, please do so as soon as possible. As a reminder, there is an $8.00 fee for the Tulsa Air and Space Museum trip. Please send that in as soon as you are able. I haven't set a deadline yet, but will eventually have to do so.
- MAP/Comprehension Testing – Students will be taking their end of year MAP Reading and Math and Reading Comprehension tests over the next 2 weeks. These will allow us to directly compare where they started the year, where they were mid year, and where they are finishing. I can't wait to see the great growth!
- Homework – I will not be assigning Tuesday/Thursday homework for the remainder of the year. However, if there is something students do not finish throughout the day, they will still need to take it home and bring it back the next school day.
- Events – Make sure you check the important dates below and mark your calendars! We have a lot going on during the last weeks of school. It is a fun and busy time!
