San Diego Opera presents Donizetti's Comedy Don Pasquale in Acclaimed Wild West Production

Performances mark the Company and role debut of opera superstar, soprano Danielle de Niese as Norina

Tenor Charles Castronovo returns to sing Ernesto

Bass-baritone John Del Carlo returns to sing his Metropolitan Opera signature role

Italian Conductor Marco Guidarini to make Company debut

San Diego, CA – San Diego Opera's 47th International Season continues with Gaetano Donizetti's hilarious Don Pasquale which opens Saturday, March 10, 2012. In this masterpiece of comic opera, the doddering old fool Pasquale is tricked into thinking he has married the sweet, demure and innocent convent-raised Sofronia. But she's really Norina, in love with Pasquale's nephew whom he is trying to disinherit. Once "married", she becomes a gun-toting shrew who shows Pasquale that he was definitely better off without a wife. In relocating the action to the Wild West, this production is complete with a hero who enjoys a bubble bath surrounded by beautiful bar girls, an onstage Mariachi band and an old fool who desperately wants to marry a much younger woman. These performances mark the Company and role debut of Australian born soprano Danielle de Niese who will sing the role of Norina for the first time in her career. American bass-baritone John Del Carlo will return to sing the title role of Don Pasquale, a role he has recently sung to popular and critical acclaim at the Metropolitan Opera. American tenor Charles Castronovo returns to sing Ernesto and American baritone Jeff Mattsey returns to sing the role of Dr. Malatesta. Rounding out the cast is Robert Dahey in the role of Hop Sing and David Marsham as the Notary. Italian conductor Marco Guidarini will make his Company debut and lead the orchestra for these performances while stage director David Gately will remount the production.

Sung in Italian with English translations above the stage. These performances mark the fourth time Don Pasquale has been performed by San Diego Opera with performances in 1980, 1989 and 2002. This production is owned by San Diego Opera. The sets were designed by Tony Fanning. The costumes were designed by Helen E. Rodgers. The lighting designer is Harry Frehner.

Don Pasquale was composed by Gaetano Donizetti with libretto by Giovanni Ruffini. It received its world premiere on January 3, 1842 at the Théâtre-Italien in Paris on January 3, 1843.

Electronic Press Kits for this opera, including photos, videos and podcasts can be found online at: <http://www.sdopera.com/Company/News/PressKits/2012>

Don Pasquale will have a live radio broadcast on Saturday, March 10, 2012 at 7PM on KPBS radio, 89.5 FM (97.7 FM Calxico) and online at www.kpbs.org
