

Beginner Bass Drum Permutation

Basic Groove

Permutation A: A four-measure pattern on a bass drum staff. The first two measures consist of quarter notes with an 'x' above them, and the last two measures consist of quarter notes with a solid dot below them. The pattern is repeated twice, separated by a double bar line with repeat dots.

Permutation B: A four-measure pattern on a bass drum staff. The first two measures consist of quarter notes with an 'x' above them, and the last two measures consist of quarter notes with a solid dot below them. The pattern is repeated twice, separated by a double bar line with repeat dots.

Permutation C: A four-measure pattern on a bass drum staff. The first two measures consist of quarter notes with an 'x' above them, and the last two measures consist of quarter notes with a solid dot below them. The pattern is repeated twice, separated by a double bar line with repeat dots.

Permutation D: A four-measure pattern on a bass drum staff. The first two measures consist of quarter notes with an 'x' above them, and the last two measures consist of quarter notes with a solid dot below them. The pattern is repeated twice, separated by a double bar line with repeat dots.

Permutation E: A four-measure pattern on a bass drum staff. The first two measures consist of quarter notes with an 'x' above them, and the last two measures consist of quarter notes with a solid dot below them. The pattern is repeated twice, separated by a double bar line with repeat dots.

Permutation F: A four-measure pattern on a bass drum staff. The first two measures consist of quarter notes with an 'x' above them, and the last two measures consist of quarter notes with a solid dot below them. The pattern is repeated twice, separated by a double bar line with repeat dots.

Permutation G: A four-measure pattern on a bass drum staff. The first two measures consist of quarter notes with an 'x' above them, and the last two measures consist of quarter notes with a solid dot below them. The pattern is repeated twice, separated by a double bar line with repeat dots.

Permutation H: A four-measure pattern on a bass drum staff. The first two measures consist of quarter notes with an 'x' above them, and the last two measures consist of quarter notes with a solid dot below them. The pattern is repeated twice, separated by a double bar line with repeat dots.

Permutation I: A four-measure pattern on a bass drum staff. The first two measures consist of quarter notes with an 'x' above them, and the last two measures consist of quarter notes with a solid dot below them. The pattern is repeated twice, separated by a double bar line with repeat dots.