

2017 PURPOSE PROJECT

The Arc of Resistance

Willing to Say Yes

Oh Shit,
I said Yes... Now What?

Where Are My Hands?

Didn't See That Coming

An Illumination of Truth

Ready to Let Go

A New Perspective

Open to Receive

That was worth it,
Thank You.

2017 PURPOSE PROJECT

The Arc of Resistance

The Arc of Resistance illustrates the energy of a naturally occurring field of potentiality within each person.

Aligning our intent with the lunar cycle utilizes the intelligence of the natural cycles of life for our illumination of purpose, gift and mission.

New Moon

An initiation; as stillness gives way to new inspiration, intent and commitment.

Waxing Crescent

The energy builds quickly as we incorporate the new energy coming into our life.

Waxing First Quarter

The momentum takes hold, its still unclear what we've gotten ourselves into.

Waxing Gibbous

The mind questions the decision to say yes. We meet challenges and limitations.

Full Moon

All is illuminated., especially the personal work required to manifest our intent.

Waning Gibbous

From a state of abundance we begin to let of what we no longer need - a shedding of skin.

Waning Third Quarter

New perspectives emerge as we find a balance between fullness and spaciousness

Waning Crescent

A slowing down calls us to integrate the nectar of the journey.

New Moon

Return to stillness, we are grateful for the journey, and it was worth it
