Summary: Dr. Manges is a certified Forensic Psychologist, Court Qualified Expert Witness for Criminal and Civil matters, Litigation Consultant, Rehabilitation Therapist, Vocational Expert, Collaboratively trained Family and Vocational Specialist and Speaker-Trainer. He brings 40+ years of experience as a problem solver to his work. He is recognized by litigators, judges, individuals, corporations and non-profits for his preparedness and his ability to communicate. He is known for his ability to convey complex information in a concise, understandable and memorable way.

Mission: To offer my expertise in resolving problems that recognize my clients' unique situation. My goal is to help others understand the message I have been asked to present; whether in the court as an expert, to an individual struggling with their own personal needs or a group's wanting to communicate with their membership.

Strengths: A compassionate individual, Dr. Manges provides a professional and creditable presentation. He prides himself on appreciating the needs of the listener, whether that's at trial to a judge or jury, a professional group, community organization or adult learner. He is mindful, and considerate of the person or circumstance being spoken about, along with the cultural and personal implication of his presentation.
