

Stephanie L. Johnson, PsyD, MSCP
CA PSY30152
Drjohnson@summitpsychological.net

Education

- 9/2019-6/2021 Fairleigh Dickinson University
Postdoctoral M.S. in Clinical Psychopharmacology
- 8/2012-5/2017 University of La Verne (APA-accredited), La Verne, CA
Dissertation Title: A Comparison of the Sexual Arousal and Sexual Interest of Child Molesters and Non-Contact Sexual Offenders.
- 8/2012-6/2014 University of La Verne, La Verne, CA
Master of Sciences, Psychology

Clinical Experience

- 1/2020-present Summit Psychological Services, a Professional Psychological Corporation
Chief Psychologist
Duties include AOE/COE evaluations, worker's compensation evaluations, personal injury evaluations, neurocognitive evaluations, individual therapy (EMDR, CBT, Motivational Interviewing, Play Therapy), supervision, and clinical care training.
- 7/2018 – 12/19 ibemed, a Professional Psychological Corporation
VP of Clinical Care
Duties include: AOE/COE evaluations, worker's compensation evaluations, personal injury evaluations, neurocognitive evaluations, cognitive rehabilitation therapy, biofeedback, individual therapy (EMDR, CBT, psychodynamic, motivational interviewing, play therapy), supervision of psychological assistants, and clinical care training.
- Population includes patients from 6 years of age to geriatric. I work with an integrated team of medical professionals in a medical environment to help patients suffering from chronic pain, trauma, neurocognitive disorder, depression, anxiety, addiction, and grief.
- 9/2017-7/2018 ibemed, a Professional Psychological Corporation
Psychological Assistant Registration #: PSB94023632
Supervisor: Levon Margolin, PhD

Provided psychological services within an integrated medical setting. Conducted individual therapy with patients suffering from chronic pain and a wide range of DSM-V diagnoses. Provided cognitive rehabilitation therapy and conducted neurocognitive evaluations. Received training in behavioral medicine and worked with a multidisciplinary team.

9/2016-7/2017

Orange Psychological Services, California Certified Sex Offender Treatment Provider, Associate Practitioner Level #JOH9900, Predoctoral Intern
Supervisor: David Walsh, PsyD, ABPP, & Wesley Maram, PhD

Population consisted of adult convicted sex offenders on federal, state, or county parole or probation. Diagnoses included personality disorders, substance use disorders, paraphilic disorders, mood disorders, anxiety disorders, and neuro-developmental disorders. Responsibilities included intake assessments, preliminary diagnoses, case management, treatment planning, psychodiagnostic assessments using objective and projective personality measures (BDI-II, MCMI-III, MMPI-2, Rorschach, PAI, PCL-R), neuropsychological testing (RIAS, Quick Test, K-SNAP, Stroop Test, Trail Making Test, MMSE), risk assessment for sexual recidivism (Stable 2007, Acute 2007, Abel Assessment for Sexual Interest-2, J-SOAP-II, J-SORRAT-II, penile plethysmography), individual therapy, group therapy, and consultations with parole and probation agents.

8/2015-7/2016

University of California-Irvine, School of Medicine, Department of Psychiatry and Human Behavior. Practicum
Supervisor: David Walsh, PsyD, ABPP

Assigned to Pritzker-Conte Neuropsychiatric Disorders Research Consortium, which consists of experts from Stanford University, Cornell University, University of Michigan, Hudson-Alpha Institute, and University of California. The Consortium investigates the genetic and biochemical abnormalities in mood and psychotic disorders. Responsibilities included records review, diagnostic examinations, collateral interviews, suicide risk assessment, symptom ratings and questionnaires.

8/2014-8/2015

Orange Psychological Services, California Certified Sex Offender Treatment Provider, Associate Practitioner Level #JOH9900, Practicum
Supervisor: Wesley Maram, PhD

Population consisted of adult convicted sex offenders on federal, state, or county parole or probation. Diagnoses included personality disorders, substance use disorders, paraphilic disorders, mood disorders, anxiety disorders, and neuro-developmental disorders. Responsibilities included intake assessments, preliminary diagnoses, case management, treatment planning, psychodiagnostic assessments using objective and projective personality measures (BDI-II, MCMI-III, MMPI-2, Rorschach, PAI, PCL-R), neuropsychological testing (RIAS, Quick Test, K-SNAP, Stroop Test, Trail Making Test, MMSE), risk assessment for sexual recidivism (Stable 2007, Acute 2007, Abel Assessment for Sexual Interest-2, J-SOAP-II, J-SORRAT-II, penile plethysmography), individual therapy, group therapy, and consultations with parole and probation agents.

8/2013-8/2014

Aurora Behavioral Health Care - Charter Oak Hospital, Practicum
Supervisor: Phillip Snyder, Ph.D.

Outpatient Rotation

Population consisted of adult inpatients and partial hospitalization outpatients with a wide range of acute psychiatric disorders.

Responsibilities included triage, psychodiagnostic assessments (BDI-II, BAI, MMPI-2, MCMI-III, PAI, Rorschach, WAIS-IV, Trail Making Test, MMSE), group therapy, crisis intervention, individual therapy, conjoint and family therapy, and coordination of care with a multidisciplinary team of psychiatrists, psychologists, and nurses.

Chemical Dependency and Residential Treatment Rotation

Population consisted of adults and adolescents with dual diagnoses in an inpatient unit. Responsibilities included psychodiagnostic assessment, preliminary diagnosis, crisis management, substance abuse counseling, group therapy, individual therapy, family therapy, case management, and discharge planning.

8/2008-3/2010

Center for Behavioral Research & Services, Long Beach, California,
Counselor
Supervisor: Dennis Fisher, Ph.D.

Population included adults seeking care for substance use disorders, sexually transmitted infections and adjustment disorders at a community outpatient clinic. Responsibilities included Risk Behavioral Assessment Interviews, sexually transmitted infection risk reduction and safe sex counseling and chemical dependency counseling.

Military Experience

United States Army
Military Police Officer
1/1991-3/1996

Certifications/ Training

EMDR Certified Clinician
EMDRIA Certification

California Certified Sex Offender Treatment Provider
Associate Practitioner Level #JOH9900
California Sex Offender Management Board

Certified Clinical Trauma Professional
International Association of Trauma Professionals

Certified Compassion Fatigue Professional
International Association of Trauma Professionals

Certified 40-Hour Domestic Violence Advocate Training (H-DVAT)
California Evidence Code 1037.1

Teaching Experience

- | | |
|----------------|--|
| 8/2015-5/2016 | University of La Verne
Graduate Assistant
Assisted in teaching a doctoral level Advanced Statistics I & II Lab covering univariate and multivariate analyses. |
| 8/2014-5/2015 | University of La Verne
Graduate Assistant
Assisted in teaching an upper division Senior Thesis course aiding students in their development and presentation of their thesis projects. |
| 8/2011-12/2011 | California State University, Long Beach
Graduate Assistant
Assisted in teaching upper division undergraduate course in Child & Adolescent Development. |
| 8/2009-5/2010 | California State University, Long Beach
Graduate Assistant
Assisted in teaching upper division undergraduate course in Psychological Assessment. |

Outreach

- | | |
|---------------|--|
| 8/2008-3/2010 | Center for Behavioral Research & Services, Long Beach, Long Beach Food Bank
Distributed food to the Long Beach community and offered free testing for sexually transmitted infections. |
|---------------|--|

Research Experience

- Dissertation A Comparison of the Sexual Arousal and Sexual Interest of Child Molesters and Non-Contact Sexual Offenders.
Dissertation Chair: Jerry L. Kernes, Ph.D.
- 8/2016-7/2016 University of California-Irvine, School of Medicine, Department of Psychiatry and Human Behavior
- Assigned to Pritzker-Conte Neuropsychiatric Disorders Research Consortium, which consists of experts from Stanford University, Cornell University, University of Michigan, Hudson-Alpha Institute, and University of California. The Consortium investigates the genetic and biochemical abnormalities in mood and psychotic disorders. Responsibilities included records review, diagnostic examinations, collateral interviews, suicide risk assessment, symptom ratings and questionnaires.
- 8/2008-3/2010 Center for Behavioral Research & Services, Long Beach, California,
Research Assistant
- Participated in data collection to assess substance abuse prevalence and risk of sexually transmitted infections in the Long Beach community. Conducted interviews, data entry, and screening for several research experiments.

Research Skills:

SPSS and SAS statistical programs, Viking Data Entry, Nova Data Entry, FoxPro Application Database, Visual Basic Programming, HTML

Presentations

- Johnson, S. (2010). Post-traumatic stress disorder among AIDS orphans in Uganda, Africa. Presentation at CAB/FAB annual research conference at the Center for Behavioral Research & Services, California State University, Long Beach.
- Blanchette, S., Johnson, S., Tsaloukidis, T., Travis, K., Rosas, T., & Huynh, B. (2007). Letter from Birmingham Jail: An experiment in experiential learning. Presentation at the Honors Transfer Council of California, 7th Annual Research Conference, University of California, Irvine.