

Leslie Johanson MSN, RN, CPNP

Professional Summary

I am a pediatric nurse practitioner (mid-level provider, 10 years); And, a registered nurse (15 years), with experience in adult critical care, pediatrics, and bed-side nursing. I am currently a member of nursing faculty at Dallas College, have functioned in multiple nurse supervisory capacities, and been a mentor-educator to many nursing and nurse practitioner students throughout my career. With history of academic excellence, clinical performance, and professional integrity, I also provide nursing and mid-level medical expert witness/consulting services. In such, I review standards of care, particularly pediatric, involving multiple settings and provider types (i.e. RN, APRN, PA, MD).

Clinical & Professional Experience

Professor of Nursing Dallas College, Brookhaven Campus (Adjunct 8/2021-8/2022, Full-time 8/2022-present), expansion of my teaching role to prepare the next generation of registered nurses is a prized opportunity for me.

Primary care CPNP work experience Childgrove Pediatrics (9/2020–10/2022 part time, 11/2014-8/2019 FT, closed 10/2022), HCA/CareNow/Acute Kids 3/2020-3/2021 (prn, clinic closure per Covid), Metroplex Pediatrics 11/2019-2/2020 (temp), Medical and Surgical clinic of Irving from 7/2012-11/2014 (full/part time float between 6-7 pediatricians)

Clinical preceptor I have helped train many family and pediatric nurse practitioner students. I have found it a passion of mine to provide students meaningful learning experiences, and help them achieve professional autonomy
