

Howard Goldfarb is the founder of Goldfarb & Associates, a vocational rehabilitation counseling and consulting firm.

Mr. Goldfarb is a Certified Rehabilitation Counselor with a graduate degree in Rehabilitation Counseling from New York University.

Mr. Goldfarb was National Director of Vocational Services for CRS Care Corp., a nationwide vocational rehabilitation company, prior to commencing his own full-service vocational rehabilitation firm.

Mr. Goldfarb has been providing vocational counseling and consulting services for over 25 years. He has been testifying as a forensic expert since 1984 on matters pertaining to workers' compensation.

Mr. Goldfarb testifies as a vocational expert with the Social Security Administration, Office of Disability Adjudication and Review.

Mr. Goldfarb testifies on matters related to employment law, personal injury, marriage dissolution, sexual harassment as well as long-term disability (ERISA) matters. He has testified in class action lawsuits regarding sexual harassment affecting the Roman Catholic Archdiocese.

Mr. Goldfarb has taught as an instructor to both undergraduate and graduate students in vocational rehabilitation counseling at California State University, Los Angeles. He is a member of the Advisory Board of the Vocational Rehabilitation Program at the university.

He has lectured to various groups and agencies involving vocational rehabilitation matters. He has lectured to law students at Loyola Law School as well as recently to the California Association of Employment Attorneys, Orange County branch.

Mr. Goldfarb, with over 25 years of experience, as both a counselor and forensic expert, is well-versed on all aspects of workers' compensation as it relates to vocational rehabilitation, in terms of an injured worker's capacity to return to suitable gainful employment.

His publications include Brodwin, M.G., Saver, L.J., Hallberg, E., & Goldfarb, H.J. (1996). "Stress Within the Injured Worker." Journal of Applied Rehabilitation Counseling, 27, 13-16; and he has authored "An Insider's Guide to Choosing A Rehabilitation Provider," Risk Management Journal, February, 1989.

He is a member of the International Association of Rehabilitation Professionals, the National Rehabilitation Association, Rehabilitation Counseling Association, Forensic Expert Witness Association and the Forensic Section of California Association of Rehabilitation and Re-employment Professionals.