

About Dr. Michael Milne, MD, MBA

Dr. Michael Milne is a nationally recognized orthopedic sports medicine surgeon and expert witness specializing in knee, shoulder, and general orthopedic cases. With over 20 years of clinical and surgical experience, Dr. Milne has performed thousands of procedures ranging from complex joint reconstructions to advanced arthroscopic repairs. He combines this medical expertise with the strategic insight of a Wharton MBA, making him a powerful resource for attorneys, law firms, and corporate counsel.

“My role as an expert witness is to translate the complexity of orthopedic injuries into clear, credible testimony that wins the trust of juries and judges,” says Dr. Milne.

Dr. Milne provides Independent Medical Examinations (IMEs), record reviews, deposition support, and trial testimony nationwide. Based in Southern California and Wyoming, he is sought after for his professionalism, objectivity, and ability to clarify causation, damages, and long-term outcomes.
